

Unions and Workplace Safety

The affiliated unions of the AFL-CIO have historically promoted workplace safety and health laws.

The Federal OSHA Law became effective on April 28, 1971 as a direct result of organized labor's support and efforts.

Under the OSHA ACT section 11[c] employees have a right to seek safety and health on the job without fear of punishment.

In 2018 - Workers' Memorial Day will be held Saturday, April 28th in York Pennsylvania.

The Winning Student will be invited to attend the Observance at Kiwanis Lake that evening to receive their award.

The Scholarship

Dick Boyd, President of the York-Adams Central Labor Council from 1987 - 2007, is a long-time union and community leader. A native of York County, he is well known for his commitment to making our communities better places to live and work. Although he can be legally considered a retiree, his ongoing commitment to working people and their Unions is an inspiration to many.

Eligibility

In order to be eligible for a scholarship, you must be a high school senior in York or Adams County planning to pursue accredited post-secondary education.
