Dear Brothers & Sisters,

Despite billions in bailouts and concessions, Yellow shut its doors on July 30, 2022, and it filed for bankruptcy on August 6, 2023. Yellow's closure has resulted in job losses for hundreds of Local 776 members, and thousands of Teamsters nationally. The loss of a job is not just a loss of income; it is often the loss of an identity. For these losses, please accept our deepest sympathies.

Although you may have lost your position at Yellow, you have not lost your Union Brothers' and Sisters' solidarity. While we cannot undo the damage Yellow caused, we can keep you informed and, to the extent possible, help you try to get paid for what you are owed. That is why we have created this FAQ.

Importantly, we recommend that all Yellow employees fill out a Bankruptcy Proof of Claim. This Proof of Claim is your statement to the Bankruptcy Court that Yellow owes you money. The Bankruptcy Court reviews these claims, and if there are sufficient assets left after Yellow's secured debts are paid, then these claims get processed. To file a claim, log on to <http://dm.epiq11.com/Yellowcorporation> and click on file a claim, set up an account, and file a claim. We recommend you print the "Proof of Claim" and fill it out prior to filling out the online form. We have enclosed a blank form if you choose to mail the claim, and we also included an example of how to fill out the proof of claim.

Your Proof of Claim should include any under-payment of wages, including Yellow's failure to pay any final paycheck, accrued vacation, grievance award, or other amount that you believe Yellow owes you. In addition, we recommend your Proof of Claim include the sixty-day WARN Act notice that Yellow failed to give you and other affected employees. If you need help filling out your Proof of Claim, please contact the Union Hall.

FAQs

What will happen to my Pension?

Employees who are vested will be entitled to a pension benefit in accordance with the Pension Plan's terms. The benefit amount is based upon your pension credits and employer contributions. While YRC failed to make payment for hours worked in June and July to the pension, the fund will be crediting the hours you worked. Please contact the Fund Office for information about if and when you can retire at (610) 320-5505

What will happen to my health insurance?

Your 3rd quarter coverage will end on September 30, 2023. The Fund will provide you with contribution credit for hours worked in June and July 2023 once we are able to obtain that information from Yellow. However, because there were essentially no hours worked in August, you will need to pay the difference between the number of credited contribution hours and the 420 hours needed to qualify for coverage for the 4th quarter of the year. The Fund will send you a shortage notice so you can make payment. If you fully pay the shortage notice, you will have coverage through December 31, 2023. To check your eligibility for coverage please contact the Cash Receipts department at 610-320-5500.

The Fund will offer you COBRA coverage when your coverage ends, whether it ends on September 30 or December 31, 2023. You will have at least 60 days from when the COBRA coverage packet is sent to you to return your election form if you want to elect COBRA. Keep in mind that there may be other options available to you, including coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace at www.HealthCare.gov or call 1-800-318-2596. You may be able to get coverage through the Health Insurance Marketplace that costs less than COBRA continuation coverage.

What is the Local doing to help?

The Local already has held job fairs attended by employers and government agency representatives. The Local also will help members fill out their Bankruptcy Proofs of Claim against Yellow. And the International Union has created a list of companies that are hiring that can be found at: <https://teamster.org/CareerCenter/>.

Are Local 776 shops hiring?

Yes. The International Union has created a list of companies that are hiring that can be found at: <https://teamster.org/CareerCenter/>.

Why did Yellow go bankrupt?

Your guess is as good as ours. One thing we know is that Yellow employees and the Union did not cause the bankruptcy. Yellow employees are industry professionals who are suffering the worst effects of the Company's mismanagement. And without concessions and political support from the Teamsters, Yellow would have shut its doors years ago.

What if I cannot get a Union job?

Then make your new job a Union job. Call Local 776 Organizer, Ashley Cerzullo, at (717) 233-8766.

Should I get a withdrawal card?

When members leave the craft, they need to inform the Union so that the Local stops assessing dues. Taking a withdrawal card stops the assessment, and it allows members to avoid initiation fees at other Teamster shops.

How do I get a withdrawal card?

Please contact the Union Hall at (717) 233-8766.

Do I have to take a withdrawal card?

Members who are still seeking work in the craft should contact the Union Hall at (717) 233-8766 about their withdrawal card options.

Why should I fill out a Bankruptcy Proof of Claim?

Because you have nothing to lose except a chance at getting some or all of the money Yellow owed you when it shut its doors. If you do not file a Proof of Claim, the Bankruptcy Court will distribute any money available only to those who do file.

What should be in the Proof of Claim?

You should list any wages, vacation pay, grievance payouts, and other amounts Yellow owed you when its ceased operations. Members also should claim 60 days of pay for the Company's failure to give notice of its shutdown under the WARN Act.

Will I get everything I put on the Proof of Claim?

Probably not, but you might get some of your claims paid. Bankruptcy has very strict rules regarding who gets paid first. "Secured" debts are paid first. Secured debts are similar to mortgages. They are loans that are "secured" by collateral, which is another name for property. If secured debt is not paid, then the lender gets the collateral, just like if a mortgage is not paid, the bank gets the home. "Unsecured" debts are amounts owed without being secured by property, like wages and fringe benefits. Unsecured debts get paid only after all secured debts are paid.

Who can help me fill out a Proof of Claim?

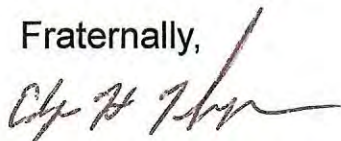

Filling out a claim is simple. Feel free to call your Business Agent, John Taylor, for assistance at (717) 233-8766.

Where should I go to file an unemployment claim?

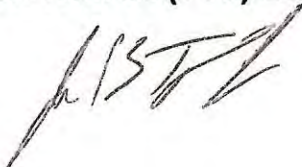

You can use the following website to file an unemployment claim:
